Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's Dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realm.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Regulations respecting Foreign Medals.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British Subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British Subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

ARMY CIRCULAR.No. 7.—1867.War Office, 1st August, 1867.*

The following Royal Warrant, Regulations and Instructions are promulgated to the Army by direction of the SECRETARY OF STATE FOR WAR, in accordance with the arrangements detailed in Army Circular No. 1:—

FINANCE.41.—Royal Warrant granting an Increase of Pay to the Army.*VICTORIA R.

Whereas we have been pleased to take into our consideration the best means of improving the condition of the non-commissioned officers and soldiers of those regiments and corps of our Army which are liable to service in all parts of the world, and also of encouraging recruiting for our regiments of the line; and whereas it has been represented to us that this end may most effectually be attained by the grant of an increase to the existing rates of pay as fixed by our Royal Warrant of the 3rd February, 1866;

Our will and pleasure therefore is, that the pay of all ranks of non-commissioned officers and of the private men of our regiments and corps after mentioned, that is to say:—

1. Foot Guards,
2. Cavalry and Infantry of the Line,
3. Royal Artillery,
4. Royal Engineers,
5. Military Train,
6. Royal Canadian Rifle Regiment,
7. Cavalry Depôts and Depôt Battalions,
8. Recruiting Districts,
9. Schools of Gunnery and Musketry,
10. Departmental Corps

be, from and after the 1st day of April last, increased by an addition of twopence a-day to the several rates of daily pay assigned to them by our said Warrant.

In consequence of the exceptional rates of pay at present granted to our Household Cavalry, we have not deemed it expedient to extend to all ranks of those regiments the grant of the additional twopence a day; but we are pleased to take this opportunity of assimilating the rates of pay of our regiments of Life Guards and Royal Horse Guards, and have therefore determined that the following schedule be substituted for that portion of our Royal Warrant of the 3rd of February, 1866, which regulates the pay of our Household Cavalry.

It is our further will and pleasure that, as a special inducement to soldiers to re-engage for a second period of service in our Army, a further addition of one penny a day be, from and after the 1st day of April last, made to the pay of all men who have completed, or who shall have completed, a first period of limited service, and shall now or hereafter be serving in any corps or regiment in our service, except in colonial corps other than the Canadian Rifles. We do further command that this additional pay of one penny a day during a second period of service shall, as regards the non-commissioned officers and men of the Royal Canadian Rifle Regiment, be in lieu of the exceptional addition of one penny a day now received by soldiers of that corps serving under special engagement for continued service.

Given at our court at St. James's, this 29th day of June in the 31st year of our reign.

JOHN S. PAKINGTON.

2. In addition to the above, officers will either be accommodated in public quarters or receive lodging money, and, with the exception of the general officer commanding, will be granted an addition of 2s. 8d. a day, in lieu of forage and grooms, for each horse they may be entitled to keep by Warrant or special authority.

3. The undermentioned rates will be granted to officers according to their relative rank as set forth in her Majesty's Warrant of 3rd February, 1866. Brevet rank will in no case be recognised, except as provided for in Article 7.

4. An additional allowance of 3s. a day, will be granted to the commanding officer of each regiment or corps, and to the heads of the Adjutant General's, Quartermaster General's, Commissariat, Medical, Purveyor's, Military Store and Barrack Departments; also to the commandants At Colombo, Galle, Trincomalee, Kandy and the Straits, if not in receipt of it in any other capacity.

5. Officers of Royal Engineers who are in receipt of servant allowance and of extra pay, which includes allowances for lodgings, fuel, light and travelling within five miles of their station, will be allowed 2s. 8d. a day in lieu of forage and grooms for each horse they may be entitled to keep; and, in addition, the following rates in lieu of rations of provisions, and extra allowance:—

Colonel	20	10	0	a month, or	13	8
Lieut. Colonel	14	0	0		9	4

6. If in consequence of the death or temporary absence of an officer from the command an officer of inferior rank succeed to the command of a regiment or corps, or to the charge of a department, he will receive the allowances of the rank next above his own. A captain of Royal Artillery, so situated, should the Artillery command hereafter be made that of a Lieutenant Colonel, will receive the allowances of a major, although the corps does not contain that regimental rank. A captain of Royal Engineers in like circumstances will receive consolidated allowance at the rate of £17 a month, or 11s. 4d. a day.

7. Brevet officers will be granted allowances according to their regimental rank, unless actually in performance of higher duties than those which attach to their regimental commissions; but the higher rate will in no case be allowed unless the superior duties have been performed for a period exceeding one month.

8. An officer's allowances will commence on the day of his arrival in the command, as notified in General Orders, and will cease on the day he leaves it.

9. Officers on promotion will receive the allowances of their new rank from the date of the General Order notifying the promotion.

10. Officers of Royal Engineers, when accommodated in public quarters, will pay stoppages at the following rates:—

Subaltern	22	8	0

11. All claims for lodging-money will be supported by the usual certificates that the officer actually provided himself with lodgings, and was not, and could not be, accommodated in any building belonging to or hired by the public.

12. Claims for forage allowance will be supported by certificates, showing the number of horses which have been actually kept.

13. Officers drawing these allowances are not entitled to soldier servants, and they will, therefore, furnish certificates that they had not the services of any soldier or other person paid by the public. In any case in which an officer may be allowed a soldier servant under competent authority, a deduction of 1s. a day will be made from his consolidated allowance in respect of every such soldier servant.

43.—Hospital Stoppages.

Warders of military prisons admitted into military hospitals will be charged the actual cost of their subsistence while in hospital, in addition to the stoppage fixed by article 619 of the Royal Warrant of the 3rd February, 1866.

ARMY CIRC. No. 7—continued.CLOTHING.*44.—Summer Trousers.

45.—Cholera Belts.

Should an outbreak of cholera or other disease at a Foreign Station render it advisable that cholera belts should be temporarily worn by the troops, the officer in command, acting upon the recommendation of the senior medical officer at the station, may authorize the issue from the military stores of two cholera belts to each soldier, upon the understanding, that when the medical officer considers their continued use unnecessary, the belts shall be returned to the military store officer, who will retain them for re-issue.

A charge of 1s. 10d. will be made for every cholera belt lost or destroyed, and the same price will be charged by the military store officer for any ordinary issues on repayment.

The store of cholera belts at foreign stations will be kept up in accordance with the instructions contained in the War Office letter addressed to military store officers on 6th January, 1866.

THE Secretary of State for War acknowledges the receipt on 26 June, 1867, of £7 on account of "Forage overdrawn."

46.—Royal Warrant regulating Furlough and Furlough Money on Re-engagement.

VICTORIA R.

Whereas it has been represented to us that it is expedient to amend the regulations under which furlough and money in lieu of furlough are granted to soldiers on re-engagement, our will and pleasure is, that Articles 563, 564 and 565 of our Royal Warrant of the 3rd February, 1866, be cancelled, and that from and after the date hereof the following revised Articles be the sole and standing authority on the subject :—

563. Soldiers who shall re-engage for a second term of service while serving at home shall be entitled to a furlough for two months, the furlough commencing from the date of their re-engagement.

But should a soldier so receiving a gratuity be prevented from embarking through circumstances under his own control, our Secretary of State shall be empowered to cause such gratuity to be refunded by the soldier.

565. European soldiers re-engaging for a second term of service while serving at the unmentioned foreign stations, and not being under orders to proceed elsewhere, shall be allowed the following gratuities in lieu of furlough :—

10. The additional penny a-day granted to men who have re-engaged for a second period of service since 1st April, 1867, or who shall hereafter so re-engage, is issuable from the date on which they severally have engaged or shall engage to complete a total period of 21 years' service. Pay of re-engaged Men.

13. The names of the men in receipt of the additional penny on re-engagement will be borne in the pay sheets separately from the non-re-engaged men, and both classes will be entered in alphabetical order.

14. The non-commissioned officers on the higher rate of pay (i. e., inclusive of the additional twopence and re-engagement penny) will be entered first; those on the lower rate, being the non-re-engaged men, following: the total number of days at each rate will be separately carried forward in the same order to the Form of Recapitulation. The same course will be pursued for the other ranks. Where charges are made in the September Pay List for arrears due in the prior quarter, it will be preferable to annex a supplementary Form of Recapitulation.

15. In cases where the arrears of the penny are charged for the first time for men who have already entered upon the second term of their service prior to the period of the Pay List, a reference to the Pay List in which their re-engagement bounty was charged will be given opposite each name.

16. The first charge of the extra penny for men who enlisted for unlimited service will be vouched by a certified copy of their records of service.

Non-effective Men.

17. Men, not being pensioners, who have been discharged since 1st April last, and claim the arrears, may be settled with accordingly by the paymaster of their late regiment, the charge to be vouched by the men's receipts.

18. Men discharged to pension will be settled with by their staff officers, to whom the paymaster will furnish the necessary particulars on application.

Deserters and deceased Men.

19. The accounts of men who have deserted in debt to the captains of their companies may be credited with the increased pay for the period they were effective and entitled to pay.

20. The amount chargeable for other deserters and for deceased men will be credited to the public in the current pay list.

Transferred Men.

21. The same particulars as in the case of men discharged to pension will be furnished for all men transferred by the paymaster to the payment of another accountant since 1st April last, with the addition of a certificate from the paymaster to the effect that no charge on account of such arrears between 1st April and date of transfer will be made in his accounts, which certificate will be a voucher to the accounts in which the arrears will be charged.

22. Any special cases which may arise and are not provided for by these instructions will be referred to the War Office for the consideration and decision of the Secretary of State.

50.—Regulations for Married Soldiers.

(Issued as a Special Army Circular on 9th August, 1867.)

1. The married establishment of the non-commissioned officers and rank and file of the regiments and corps of the army serving at home and abroad (India excepted) will not be permitted to exceed the following proportions:—

All Regimental Staff Serjeants.

3 out of 4 or 5,

4 " 6 or 7,

5 " 8 or 9,

6 " 10 or upwards

} Serjeants of each troop, battery or company.

Seven per centum of trumpeters, drummers and rank and file calculated upon the establishment.

2. A roll of the married establishment, as fixed above, will be kept in the orderly-room of each regiment or corps.

3. The roll will contain the names of the married soldier and of his wife, together with the names and ages of his children, as verified from the regimental register of marriages and baptisms.

4. A soldier must have completed seven years' service, and be in possession of at least one good conduct badge, in order to be eligible to have his name placed on the roll.

5. No soldier will be placed on the roll, or be entitled to any of the advantages of these regulations, unless he has obtained the consent of the commanding officer to his marriage before it takes place.

6. The roll of the married establishment will be kept in two distinct lists; one for staff serjeants and serjeants, and the other for trumpeters, drummers and rank and file.

7. The commanding officer will fill vacancies on the roll as they occur; by a serjeant if the vacancy is on the first list, or by a soldier of rank and file if the vacancy arises on the second list. When, however, the family of the soldier causing the vacancy is allowed, under Article 81, to continue in receipt of rations, such vacancy will not be filled up until the rations cease to be issued.

8. The marriage of every soldier so placed on the roll, and the birth of each of his children, will be recorded in the regimental register.

9. When the numbers on the first (or serjeants') list fall below those authorized, they will not be completed by men of any other ranks.

10. When a married soldier on the serjeants' list is reduced to the ranks, his name will be placed on the list for rank and file, as a supernumerary, if it be full, until he can be absorbed. In such case, the serjeants' list will not be completed until the other list is reduced to its proper numbers.

11. When a soldier on the married establishment is promoted to the rank of serjeant, he will remain on the list of rank and file until a vacancy occurs on the serjeant's list.

12. When a corps proceeds abroad, leaving a depôt at home, the commanding officers of the service companies and of the depôt will each record the numbers and names of the married establishment proceeding abroad and remaining at home. The commanding officers will also arrange as to the filling of subsequent vacancies on the roll. Neither officer will fill up a vacancy until he ascertains that the authorized number will not thereby be exceeded in the whole corps, and it must be distinctly understood that transfers between the depôt and the service troops or companies do not cause vacancies on the general roll of the regiment.

13. Each commanding officer will furnish a copy of the roll to the barrack master at the station, and abroad to the commissariat officer in charge at the station, and will also notify to them every change which takes place in the roll, whether in the list of married serjeants, or in that of rank and file.

14. Each barrackmaster will communicate such changes to the barrackmasters in charge of stations where other portions of the regiment may be serving, and all barrackmasters concerned will draw attention to such changes in the column for remarks in their next Barrack Occupation Return (W. O. Forms 1357 and 1357 A).

15. Barrackmasters will not provide quarters, nor issue fuel and light in kind, or the allowance in lieu thereof, to any married soldier in excess of the numbers authorized by these regulations to be upon the roll, and they will report any excess upon the roll for the information of the Secretary of State for War. Commissariat officers abroad will also be held responsible that issues of provisions, fuel and light, are not made in excess of the authorized numbers.

16. A copy of the roll will be furnished from the orderly room to the paymaster or acting-paymaster of the regiment, detachment, or depôt, on the 1st of March, 1st of June, 1st of September, and 1st of December, and will be inserted by him in his pay-list, in the form provided for that purpose.

17. If a married soldier shall desert, or be sentenced to imprisonment for a period of six months or more, he will be struck off the roll, and his family will be sent to their homes at the public expense. The vacancy thus caused on the roll will be filled up.

18. A soldier who has been struck off the roll under the last article, in consequence of imprisonment, may be restored thereto on the occurrence of a vacancy, provided he serves a year free from entry in the Regimental Defaulters' Book; but the expenses of his family in rejoining him will not be borne by the public.

19. If the wife of a soldier on the married establishment misconducts herself, the commanding officer may strike her and her family off the roll, and send them to their home at the public expense, filling up the vacancy; but he may restore them to the roll on a vacancy, provided he is satisfied that the woman has conducted herself properly for a year. Their expenses in rejoining the regiment will not be borne by the public.

20. Any soldiers who are now on the married establishment of their corps in excess of the numbers authorized by these regulations, will remain so until absorbed, and no addition will be made to the married establishment until they are absorbed.

21. The families of the soldiers on the married establishment will be entitled to the following advantages. The term families will be understood to include the wife of the soldier and his legitimate children under fourteen years of age.

Quarters.

22. A separate room will, when the construction of the barrack permits, be allotted to each married soldier and his family. When there are not a sufficient number of rooms, they will be allotted to the seniors on the roll of the married establishment. Should the number of separate rooms be more than sufficient, two rooms each may be assigned to the first class staff serjeants, and to such other non-commissioned officers and men as the commanding officer may select in consequence of the numbers in their families.

23. When a separate room cannot be allotted, a married soldier will be entitled to the quarters appointed for four single soldiers.

24. In appropriating quarters, single soldiers will first be accommodated.

25. When families are detained at a port waiting for a vessel, without the troops, barrack accommodation will be offered to them if available.

Furniture.

26. When separate quarters are allotted under Article 22, the following articles of bedding and furniture are authorized for each separate quarter, but in no case will any additions be made to the number of articles, nor will any other articles under any circumstances be issued, viz.:—

2 Bedsteads,	1 Candlestick,
4 Blankets,	1 Fender,
2 Palliasses,	1 Poker,
2 Bolsters,	1 Shovel,
2 Rugs,	1 Form (4 feet),
1 Basin, metal,	1 Mop,
1 Board, inventory,	1 Water-pail,
1 Box, coal (new pattern),	2 Serjeant's stools,
1 Broom, hair,	1 Table (4 feet),
1 Hand-scrubber,	2 Trestles.

Lodging Allowance.

27. When quarters cannot be assigned for a soldier on the married establishment, he will be paid the regulated lodging allowance.

Fuel and Light.

28. The regulated issue of fuel and light, or of the allowance in lieu thereof, will be made to each married soldier on the roll.

29. Such issue will be continued to families living in barracks while compulsorily separated from the troops by the exigencies of the service, subject to a reduction of one-sixth on account of the issues made to the soldier himself.

Provisions.

30. At foreign stations the following daily issue of rations will be made to the families of soldiers on the married establishment, free of charge:—

Wife—half a soldier's ration (liquor excepted).

Each child under 14 years of age—one fourth ditto.

31. Such issues may be continued for a period not exceeding three months after the death of the soldier or of his wife, pending an opportunity of sending the family to its home. They may also be continued for three months when a soldier is confined as a lunatic, but if he is not cured within that period, the family will be sent home at the public expense.

32. At home stations the following daily ration allowances will be issued to families on the married establishment, when the troops are compulsorily and necessarily separated from them on duty, and not in receipt of working pay:—

To each wife in lieu of a half ration 3d.
To each child under 14 years of age, in lieu of a quarter ration 1½d.

33. The above allowances will not be issued unless the period of separation exceeds four days. When the period exceeds this limit, the issue will be made, but only from the fifth day inclusive.

34. Claims for the allowances will be forwarded to the War Office, in duplicate, through the Quarter Master General, on W. O. Form 772, and will in each case be accompanied by an explanation of the reasons for the separation in consequence of which the allowances are claimed.

35. When the European non-commissioned officers of West India regiments are ordered to the West Coast of Africa, they will be allowed the option of leaving their families behind them; and the following allowances will in such cases be issued:—

- (a) If the non-commissioned officers proceed to the West Coast of Africa from a home station, and their families remain at home, an allowance of 6d. a day to each wife, and 2d. a day to each child under fourteen years of age may be issued, so long as the non-commissioned officers are serving on the Coast.
- (b) If the non-commissioned officers proceed to the Coast from the West Indies, and the families remain in the West Indies, one-half of a ration of provisions for each wife, and one quarter of a ration for each child under fourteen years of age, may be issued, free of charge, until the non-commissioned officers rejoin them in the West Indies.
- (c) These allowances will not be issued to families who may have been permitted to proceed to the West Coast, if they are subsequently obliged by sickness to return.
- (d) Families remaining at home under the provisions of paragraph (a) will be offered free passages to the West Indies, should the non-commissioned officers be afterwards sent to that station. In such cases the allowances granted by that article will cease when a family embarks for the West Indies, or declines to proceed thither.
- (e) When a family remains in the West Indies under the provisions of paragraph (b), free passages to this country will be offered them in case of their own illness, or of the death of the non-commissioned officer; but the allowances specified in paragraph (a) will not be issued when once a passage has been granted.

36. When on board ship on passage to or from foreign stations, rations in kind will be supplied to the families of all soldiers on the married establishment, free of charge.

37. When on board coasting vessels, without troops, under the circumstances detailed in Article 42, rations in kind will be supplied at the public expense to the families of all soldiers legally married, if the passages be arranged under a contract including the provision of rations.

If rations cannot be provided, the following daily allowances in lieu will be issued:—

Wife or widow 6d. | Each child 3d.

38. If on board coasting vessels in pursuance of a movement of troops, when baggage allowance is issued for the land journey, such baggage allowance must be made to cover the expenses of rationing the families.

39. For detention allowances at ports of embarkation, and subsistence allowances for journeys by railway and distances travelled on foot, see Articles 46 and 47.

Hospitals, Medical Attendance and Medicines.

40. The families of soldiers on the married establishment are entitled to medical attendance and medicine,—

- (a) Wherever there is a military medical officer, or a civil practitioner employed under contract, provided the families reside within one mile from either the staff dispensary, the military hospital or such other point at the station as may be fixed by the Secretary of State for War.
- (b) In midwifery cases they are not entitled to attendance, except in cases where it can be shown that no midwife or private practitioner could possibly be called in.
- (c) The following are the only articles which may be issued as medical comforts to the families of soldiers on the married establishment, viz.: Port wine, brandy arrowroot and essence of beef. Each case receiving medical comforts must invariably be entered by the medical officer in the medical case book. Such medical comforts will be demanded daily from the purveyor on Form 1198.

41. At certain stations, hospitals for women and children, containing a limited number of beds, have been provided under Treasury sanction. The families of soldiers on the married establishment may be admitted into these hospitals when there is available accommodation, and so long as they are under medical treatment in any such hospital, they will receive at the public expense (in addition to medical attendance and medicine) such hospital diets and extras as are prescribed by War Office Circular 849. Male children above 10 (unless in very special cases) must not be admitted into hospitals for women and children.

At stations where such female hospitals have not been established, there will be no objection to the allotment of a room in barracks, if available, as a ward for the reception of such cases of sick women and children belonging to families on the married establishment as it may be deemed expedient to remove from their quarters; and equipment and fuel and light will be provided for any such ward by the purveyor; but it is to be distinctly understood that under no circumstances will any expense for diet or nursing be admitted as a charge against the public.

Conveyance of Soldiers' Families.

42. The expenses of conveyance at the public cost will be provided for the families of soldiers on the married establishment—

- (a) When troops are ordered to embark for foreign service without their families.
- (b) When the families on the married establishment are subsequently permitted to rejoin them.
- (c) When a soldier dies or deserts, or becomes a lunatic.
- (d) When a soldier is discharged, except when discharged by purchase.
- (e) When families of soldiers on the married establishments are sent home from abroad either with or without troops.

43. In cases (a) and (c), the expenses of conveyance of the family to the home of the wife or widow will be allowed; in case (d) they will be allowed for the distance the discharged man is entitled to be conveyed in proceeding to his future home; in case (b), to the port of embarkation, or to the head quarters of the regimental dépôt; and in case (e), to the family's home, if the journey be performed without troops, or if with troops, then to the dépôt or the destination of the regiment or detachment, provided baggage allowance be not issued.

44. In case (b) the families will, as far as practicable, be medically examined at their homes before being permitted to proceed to a port of embarkation, and they will not be allowed to embark unless medically certified to be in a fit state of health and cleanliness.

45. The expenses of conveyance will in all cases be at a cost not exceeding the railway fare of 1d. a mile for persons over twelve years of age, and $\frac{1}{2}$ d. a mile for children between three and twelve years of age. No expenses will be granted for children under the age of three years, nor over fourteen years.

46. When the families are not travelling with troops, the following subsistence allowances will be issued for a railway journey of over twenty miles:—

Wife or widow ...	10d.	Each child ...	6d.
-------------------	------	----------------	-----

and if any distance is necessarily travelled on foot, the following mileage will be paid:—

Wife or widow ...	1½d.	Each child ...	1d.

47. If detained at a port waiting for a vessel, the following daily detention allowances will be paid, except for the days of arrival and embarkation, if barrack accommodation is not available for the families (art. 25):—

Wife or widow ...	10d.	Each child ...	6d.

When barrack accommodation is available, the daily detention allowance for wives and widows will be reduced to 6d., and for children to 3d.

48. When baggage allowance is issued to troops on a march, the expenses of the conveyance of the families on the married establishment by land, or by sea in coasting vessels, will not be allowed as a public charge. When baggage allowance cannot be claimed, the expenses of the conveyance of the families will be paid by the public, subject to regulation.

49. Passages will be provided at the public expense to and from foreign stations for the families on the married establishment when moving with the regiment, or proceeding to join the troops after previous separation for the good of the service.

50. Passages will also be provided (but only when troop ships or hired freight ships are available) for the families of the European non-commissioned officers of the West India and Ceylon Rifle Regiments, when accompanying the non-commissioned officers on the grant of a furlough to this country after seven years' continuous foreign service.

They will also be provided with passages when returning to the regiments on the expiration of such furlough, when troop or hired freight ships are available.

51. For rations and ration allowances on board ship, see articles 36 to 38.

BARRACKS.51.—Bass Brooms.

The Secretary of State having approved of the issue to the troops of bass brooms instead of birch brooms, has decided that the issue shall be so regulated as to allow of the same number being in use at one time as would have been the case if birch brooms had continued to be supplied under W. O. Circular 767. The bass brooms will be exchanged at the public cost only when thoroughly worn out by fair wear and tear.

COMMISSARIAT.52.—Instructions regulating Commissariat Supplies in Ireland, and the Provision of other Supplies and Transport in that Country under emergent Circumstances.

(Issued as a Special Army Circular on 8th August, 1967.)

The Secretary of State for War, having had under his consideration the regulations under which the supplies to the troops in Ireland are at present furnished and accounted for, and also the question of the adaptability of those regulations to emergent and exceptional occasions, has decided upon the following modifications of the system of administration now in operation in that country.

Bread, Meat and Forage.

1. Bread, meat and forage will continue to be supplied by contract under the existing regulations, but the half-yearly tenders for bread, meat and forage, after being advertised for locally as at present, will be sent in direct by the persons tendering, addressed to the Under Secretary of State for War, War Office, to be dealt with by the director of contracts.

2. The contractors' accounts for bread, meat and forage (now rendered to the War Office on W. O. Forms 6, 7 and 15), and the documents in support of the contractors' claims (W. O. Forms 1004, 1005 and 80), will be discontinued in Ireland, and in their place the following forms of ration return and contractors' account will be adopted, viz. W. O. Forms 789 and 1507.

3. Commanding officers of regiments, battalions, brigades, corps, or detachment, will transmit the ration returns on the last day of each month (except as provided in Article 8), to the district commissariat officer.

4. The head-quarter return will be signed by the officer commanding, and counter-signed by the Paymaster, in acknowledgment of the number of stoppages to be credited to the public in his pay list, and the receipt at the back will be correctly filled up and signed by the Quartermaster, in acknowledgment of the aggregate quantities received. The particulars of this receipt will be communicated by the Quartermaster to the contractors or their agents at the out-posts of a district, where there may be no resident commissariat officer or subordinate, so as to ensure a distinct understanding on the spot and to obviate disputes.

5. Where a regiment or corps is divided the detachment return will be signed by the officer commanding the detachment, who will communicate to the Paymaster at headquarters the number of rations drawn, in order that the stoppages may be correctly credited in his pay list. The detachment return, with the receipt at the back correctly filled up and signed by the Acting-Quartermaster or by the officer commanding the detachment, will be sent direct to the district commissariat officer, and the particulars given to the contractor as pursued at head-quarters.

6. The stoppages for forage issued to officers' horses will cease to be a matter of account with the contractor. They will be credited in the Paymaster's abstract in the same way as the men's ration stoppages, and the number both of forage and bread and meat stoppages will be verified by a monthly certificate countersigned by the distr commissariat officer, as laid down in Army Circular 2, Art. 12. A duplicate of Form 1578 will be sent by the commissariat officer to the Paymaster.

7. The forage for officers' horses will be drawn by the Quartermaster from the contractor, and accounted for in the ration return in the same way as for troop horses, but in a separate column. Officers' horses will be included for all regimental services in the Adjutant's muster roll. The number of stoppages for rations of forage to officers' horses will be certified by the district commissariat officer at the end of the month, as in the case of bread and meat stoppages.

8. When a corps or detachment is moved from one commissariat district to another, from one post to another, in the same district, or from one county to another, the ration return will be completed and closed on the date on which the movement may occur, and transmitted without delay to the district commissariat officer, and a fresh return, commencing at the period on which rations are first drawn at the new district or post, will be prepared, so that the number of rations drawn in each locality during the month, may be readily ascertained from the returns.

9. The ration returns will be examined and compared by the district commissariat officer, and compiled into a monthly abstract, for transmission with the monthly certificate of bread, meat and forage stoppages chargeable against each regiment or corps, to the commissariat officer in charge in Dublin, who will complete them, furnishing the necessary references for transmission to the War Office with the accounts current in which the expenditures will appear.

10. The contractor's claim will be preferred on W. O. Form No. 1507, and the certificates of quantity actually supplied, and for which payment may be due to contractors, will be written thereon by the district commissariat officer. That officer will be held strictly responsible, not only that the quantities are correctly stated, and correspond with the store abstracts, but also that the ration returns are correct and complete in every respect; he will transmit such claims to the senior commissariat officer, Dublin, who will, after due examination, pass them to the military accountant for payment.

11. The district commissariat officer will be required to keep magazine books of entries and issues as laid down in Articles 487 to 495 of the commissariat regulations; and abstracts of entries and issues, counterparts of the magazine books, will be transmitted immediately after the termination of each month, accompanied by the regimental ration returns, stoppage certificates, &c., to the officer in charge in Dublin.

12. The billet accounts of regimental paymasters will be accompanied by a monthly certificate from the district commissariat officer as to correctness, in order that it may be readily ascertained that the men or horses, for whom billet money is charged in the pay lists, have not been included for rations or forage in the regimental ration returns. Commanding officers and paymasters of regiments and corps will understand that the billet money for horses properly chargeable to the public may, like the billets for men, be introduced into the pay lists without previous audit, the stoppages on the authorized number of officers' horses being credited to the public in the pay lists as before shown.

Supplies to Troops in Camp, on the March, and under emergent circumstances.

13. On a march or in canvas camps, a commissariat officer or non-commissioned officer will be attached to the force to attend to the issues, collect the returns, and to give the necessary certificates to contractors or others from whom supplies may be obtained. The officer or non-commissioned officer so attached to a force on the march will continue in charge of it till relieved under competent authority, but he will report to the chief commissariat officer in every district he may pass through, and transmit to that officer for settlement the vouchers, properly certified, for any supplies which may have been obtained under the district contracts, to obviate the risk of double payment and to avoid confusion of accounts.

14. In all movements of troops, especially when they are to be supplied by the commissariat on the march or in canvas camps, a detailed statement of the strength and composition of the force to be supplied, will be furnished as early as practicable by the proper staff officer, to the district commissariat officer that he may make the requisite arrangements for the supplies, either by notifying contractors, or by entering into special agreement or purchases as may be most advantageous.

15. Fuel, light and straw will be supplied to troops in camp and under canvas by the commissariat department, except at the Curragh, where the supplies will be made by the barrack department. Fuel, light and straw will not be included in the commissariat accounts, unless when the issues are made by the commissariat to troops under canvas, or on the march.

16. In the case of flying columns and camps, and other emergent and exceptional services, the commissariat officers, on the requisition of the commanding officer, may obtain by purchase such articles as are absolutely and urgently required by the troops, and which could not be obtained from the several departments without inconvenience or unnecessary delay. They will also make arrangements for the provision of transport, on the certificate of the officer commanding that impressment cannot be enforced.

17. In these cases the commissariat officers will immediately inform the heads of departments of the purchases so made, so that they may be taken on charge and, when necessary, marked with the W. ↑ D., and that in the event of a continuous supply being required the department may be enabled to make the necessary arrangements.

18. Commissariat officers or others acting as such will, under the authority of the senior commissariat officer in Ireland, obtain from the military accountant, Dublin, the necessary advances to enable them to act upon the instructions contained in Article 16; and will render to him monthly, or at shorter intervals, through the senior commissariat officer, a statement, accompanied by vouchers, of any expenditure which they may have incurred.

19. Payments for car hire or other transport, and for special emergent services which it may be necessary to settle locally, will be paid by the district commissariat officer, or by the commissariat officer accompanying the column; but, when practicable, hire of transport and other claims will be paid by the military accountant, Dublin, on the certificate of the district commissariat officer, or of the commissariat officer accompanying the column.

53.—Extra Meat for Regimental Recreation Rooms, and other purposes, at Home Stations only.

1. Troops at home will, from 1st of December, 1867, be allowed to draw fresh meat, at the contract price, for use in the regimental recreation rooms and for other purposes, to the extent of a $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. a day for each non-commissioned officer and private, in addition to the ordinary ration of $\frac{3}{4}$ lb. meat.

2. This extra quantity must, however, be drawn with the regimental supply, and in no case will the meat drawn for be allowed to exceed 1 lb. for each non-commissioned officer and soldier included in the return.

3. Where cattle are slaughtered and issues made by the commissariat, the extra $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. meat will be paid for monthly to the commissariat at the rate authorized periodically, including labour and other charges. A note will be made on the issue voucher stating the particular account in which the amount will be found credited.

4. When meat is obtained from contractors, payment must be made direct to them monthly by the Paymaster, at the contract price for the period of supply.

CLOTHING.

54.—Compensation to Men Re-engaging.

1. Men who re-engage under the terms of "The Army Enlistment Act, 1867," will receive compensation in lieu of clothing under conditions similar to those already in force for men re-engaged under previous Acts, viz:—

2. Men who re-engage between the 1st April and the 30th June will receive compensation, from the 1st April to the date of re-engagement, for the articles of clothing in lieu of which they would have received compensation had they been discharged on the day on which they re-engage.

3. Men who re-engage between the 1st July and the 31st March will receive compensation, from the date of re-engagement to the 31st March, for such articles of clothing, except great coats, as they would have been allowed by regulation to take away with them, had they been discharged on the day on which they re-engage.

4. The compensation will be paid on the day of re-engagement.

5. Men who receive compensation under the above regulation are only entitled, for the year in which the re-engagement takes place, to the same clothing as is issued during that year to the regiment generally, and as they would receive if such year formed part of one engagement only.

55.—Compensation for Bearskin Caps.

The following rates will be allowed as compensation in lieu of the bearskin caps worn by the 2nd Dragoons:—

Staff Serjeants, 1s. 2½d. per month. Other Ranks, 1s. 2d. per month.

56.—Necessaries.

One blue serge frock has been approved as a substitute for the two white duck frocks, included in the kit of the Royal Artillery at warm stations under paragraph 88 of the revised Royal Clothing Warrant, 1865.

ENGINEER DEPARTMENT.

57.—Repairs of Barrack Damages.

Paper-hangings required by barrackmasters for repairs of barrack damages in officers' and other rooms, &c., in barracks, instead of being furnished by the Military Store Department as hitherto, will, in future, be supplied to barrackmasters by the local commanding Royal Engineers on requisitions from those officers. The expense will be chargeable to the items for "Repairs of Barrack Damages" in the engineer estimates.

STORES.

58.—Freight from Foreign Stations.

1. Much unnecessary inconvenience and correspondence having arisen in consequence of the imperfect information afforded by officers engaging freight for stores from Foreign Stations to this country (in the absence of a naval transport officer), Secretary Sir John Pakington desires that for the future the following directions may be strictly adhered to:—

2. Officers engaging freight will be governed by Chapters I. to V. of the regulations for Her Majesty's Transport Service, so far as they may be applicable.

3. When the stores do not exceed 50 tons, or where the value of the freight will not exceed £100, the only document necessary will be the tender (Form Appendix No. II.), page 72, Transport Regulations.

4. When the quantity of stores or the amount of the freight exceeds the above limit, the documents required will be the Tender and Charter Party (Forms Appendix No. I. and No. III.), pages 71 and 73 Transport Regulations.

5. A letter of advice of the engagement of freight will be transmitted by the first mail to the Under Secretary of State for War for all military stores shipped, and a duplicate will be sent at the same time to the Director of Transports, Admiralty, Somerset House. A letter of advice will be similarly transmitted to the director of transports in regard to all engagements of freight for naval stores.

6. These letters of advice will specify the following particulars, viz.—

I. The name of the ship.

II. The names and addresses, in this country, of the owners or brokers of the ship.

III. Whether a steamer or sailing vessel.

IV. Nature of stores shipped.

V. Tonnage of stores—

Heavy.

Light.

VI. Rate of freight per ton—

Heavy, per ton of 20 cwt.

Light, measurement per ton of 40 cubic feet.

VII. Dépôt yard or port to which consigned.

VIII. Official title of the officer to whom consigned.

IX. By whom lighters will be furnished for forwarding the stores from the ship to the dépôt, &c.

X. At whose expense the lighters will be furnished.

XI. Probable date at which the vessel will sail for this country.

XII. Number of lay-days available for discharge of government stores.

7. The master of the vessel engaged will be instructed to report her arrival in this country immediately by telegram to the Director of Transports, stating the dock or other place where she may be lying, and when she will be ready to discharge the stores.

8. No payment of freight will be made abroad.

9. In the event of it being necessary to make an advance of freight in any special case, a notation of such advance will be made in the letter of advice.

GENERAL ORDERS,

BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS

THE FIELD MARSHAL COMMANDING IN CHIEF.

NEW SERIES. AUGUST, 1867.

No. 59.—Harvesting.

(Home Stations only.)

Issued specially 10th August, 1867.

There will be no objection on the part of His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief to commanding officers permitting a certain number of men to assist in the harvest, on being applied to for such assistance, provided that the employment of the population is not thereby interfered with.

No. 60.—Staff College.

With reference to the last paragraph of Section V. of the Staff College Regulations, published with the General Order, No. 886, dated 23rd May, 1866, it is hereby notified to officers of the Army that the following campaigns will form the subject of examination in military history and geography at the examination for admission to the Staff College to be held in July, 1868.

I. Campaign of 1813 in Germany, with the battle of Dresden in detail.

II. Campaign of 1814 in Champagne, with the operations against Blucher, 7th to 15th February, in detail.

N.B.—Candidates will be expected to have an accurate knowledge of the geography of the seat of War in both campaigns, with reference more especially to military operations, and to make a rough sketch of any portion of it that may be required.

Officers will receive, on application to the Secretary to the Council of Military Education, a copy of the synopsis of the studies pursued at the Staff College.

No. 61.—Ammunition.

The Field Marshal Commanding in Chief desires that all central fire cartridges for Snider's breech-loading rifles which miss fire, cut or fail from any cause, may be preserved by regiments and forwarded to the Principal Superintendent of Stores at Woolwich for the Superintendent of the Royal Laboratory, accompanied invariably by a description of the distinguishing mark of the ammunition and that of the arms with which any failures may occur.

No. 62.—Stores on board Ship. (Quarter Master General.)

Stores in H.M. Ships of War and Commissioned Troop Ships.

I. All bedding and mess utensils issued for the use of troops embarked on board any of Her Majesty's ships of war or commissioned troop ships are to be received and accounted for on the same principle as such articles would be if furnished to troops in barracks. The articles required are to be drawn from the stores of the ship by the Quarter Master of the troops, or other person acting on his behalf, and by him returned to the officer of the ship from whom they were received at the termination of the voyage, with a certificate from the commanding officer of the troops, showing the manner in which the articles not returned have been disposed of, and whether any portion is chargeable to the troops.

II. Any loss or damage which cannot be satisfactorily accounted for will be charged against the troops on disembarkation; and if so chargeable against a regiment—embarked collectively or by detachments—the paymaster of the ship is authorized to obtain from the officer in command of the troops payment for the same. When the troops on board consist of detachments of several corps, the military officer in command must make each detachment responsible for the articles issued to it; and if, when a loss has occurred, he is unable to fix it upon any individual soldier, he will charge it to the detachment concerned, paying the amount at once, if possible, out of any balance in his hands due to such detachment; otherwise he will furnish an account of the charge to the ship's paymaster, and transmit a duplicate thereof to the officer commanding the regiment, who will cause the amount to be stopped from the soldiers and credited to the public in the first regimental account rendered after the detachment joins its corps.

III. In the event of loss or damage arising from stress of weather, fire or other accident, the statement of the circumstances under which it occurred must be supported by an extract from the ship's log or other satisfactory certificate before the troops can be relieved of the charge.

IV. A Board composed of three commissioned officers should assemble in time to prevent the ship being delayed on arrival at its destination, in order to record the loss or damage of any articles which are chargeable to the public, instead of to the troops under the circumstances above stated. A copy of the proceedings of the Board is to be given to the paymaster or other officer of the ship.

V. If the captain of the ship should make any objection to the number of the articles it is proposed to charge against the public, the original report of the Board is to be referred by the officer commanding the troops through the general officer commanding on the station to the Quartermaster-General, for the information of the Commander in Chief, who will, if necessary, communicate with the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty upon the subject.

Stores in Hired Ships.

VI. Articles supplied from naval stores, such as bedding, mess utensils, &c., for the use of troops in ships hired by the Admiralty, are to be in charge of the master of the ship, who is to issue them, as demanded by the commanding officer, to the quartermaster of the troops or other person acting in that capacity.

VII. The medical comforts are to be drawn from the master of the ship on the requisition of the medical officer, who is required to keep an account of their receipts and expenditure, and on arrival at his destination to transmit such account to the Director General of the Army Medical Department.

VIII. Articles remaining on board at the close of the voyage are to be returned to the master, accompanied by a list of deficiencies, signed by the military commanding officer, and stating by what corps the stores were lost or destroyed, under what circumstances any deficiencies occurred, and whether the troops are chargeable with their value.

IX. Payment for articles so chargeable is in no case to be made to the master of the ship, but commanding officers are to take care that the amount is recovered, when practicable, from the troops on disembarkation and accounted for on the spot, under orders from the disembarking staff officer.

X. In the case of hired ships from India, the medicine chest and surgical instruments, the arms and ammunition, the waterproof coats and caps, the library chest and box of games, as also the hammocks, beds, pillows, blankets, rugs, cots, and any other Government stores which may be placed on board for the use of the troops, are to be handed over to the master of the ship and a receipt for them obtained.

War Department Stores.

XI. When War Department property, such as purveyor's hospital stores, musketry articles, waterproof clothing, games, books, &c., is placed on board ships hired by the Admiralty, for the use of the troops during the voyage, the military commanding officer will be held responsible that all such articles are returned into the proper War Department store at the termination of the voyage. If, however, invalids are on board a hired ship arriving at Spithead, from any but an Indian port, purveyor's hospital stores are to be sent with them to Netley. Medical comforts and bedding will, in all cases, be left in charge of the master of the ship.

XII. The commanding officer will be careful to obtain from the departmental officer furnishing the stores a duplicate list of the articles received, which list he will retain for information during the voyage, and hand over to the disembarking officer on arrival. All deficiencies are to be duly accounted for, and the amount chargeable to the troops is to be recovered, when practicable, at the time of disembarkation, in order to avoid delay in the adjustment of accounts.

EN. ORDERS—continued.

XIII. When the commanding officer considers that there are reasonable grounds for believing the troops of any charges, it will be his duty to assemble a Board of three commissioned officers to record evidence respecting the loss or damage, and to express an opinion whether the charges should be borne by the public or by the troops. The report of the Board is to be forwarded through the general officer commanding at the port of disembarkation. If a Board of three officers cannot be assembled, two officers will suffice; and when two, even, are not available, the commanding officer will himself record the circumstances under which the deficiencies occurred.

XIV. Rugs issued by the barrack department for the use of detachments proceeding coastwise from one port of the United Kingdom to another by night, are in like manner to be accounted for at the end of the voyage.

No. 63.—Records.

I. It having been brought to notice that misapprehension exists as to the method of calculating the service towards limited engagement of soldiers, who have been absent without leave (otherwise than by desertion), imprisoned by summary award of their commanding officers, or in confinement awaiting trial, it is directed that in all instances where a deduction has been made in the records for the above causes, the same be re-credited to the men, such deduction being repugnant to the provisions of the 8th section of the Army Service Act of 1847.

II. Officers commanding regiments, corps, and dépôt battalions, will take steps to have the necessary corrections made in the records under the supervision of a regimental board, which will however not alter the entries as they stand, but add the period to be credited to the men, on the face of the record after the last entry, verifying the same with their signature.

III. It is to be understood, however, that all men enlisting, re-enlisting or re-engaging under the Army Enlistment Act of 1867, will be subject to the deduction of service laid down in the 6th section of that statute.

No. 64.—Ammunition.

All blank ammunition for the converted Snider breech-loading rifles which is not marked "for Snider Rifles II,"—which alone is suited for the present rifles,—is to be at once returned into store, the troops retaining in their possession the ammunition only which bears the distinctive mark II. after the word rifles.

No. 65.—Forms.

A new form of "Balance and Cash Account Sheet" has been approved of and may be adopted in all infantry regiments, at the option of commanding officers.

A specimen form is annexed for guidance.*

Supplies of blank forms may be obtained upon requisition to the War Office, at the rate of 9d. per quire.

No. 66.—Serjeant Master Tailors.

I. The practice of appointing men specially enlisted as Serjeant Master Tailors to regiments on foreign stations having been attended with inconvenience, will in future be discontinued, and the system of enlisting civilians for service in this capacity restricted to regiments at home.

II. Regiments having therefore master tailors specially enlisted will, on being put under orders for embarkation, apply for a soldier who has been trained at the Royal Army Clothing Factory, Pimlico, in exchange for the specially enlisted Serjeant Master Tailor, who will be transferred with his own consent, which should always be specified in the description return to accompany the application, to a regiment likely to remain at home for a lengthened period.

III. As this amendment of the regulations will involve the training of a larger number of soldiers than has hitherto been considered necessary, commanding officers in the United Kingdom will be pleased to forward from time to time through the General Officer commanding the district or station in which their regiments may be

* May be had upon application to the Adjutant General.

serving, the names of any candidates who may come forward possessing the following qualifications:—

A good character, sober, steady and industrious; a tailor by trade, with inclination and capacity for the business; and an indisposition to get into debt. The man, moreover, should be unmarried; but this last condition will not be strictly insisted upon if the candidate is in other respects eligible.

IV. General officers having satisfied themselves that the candidate proposed for training possesses the above qualifications, will cause him to be examined by a board consisting of two or more serjeant master tailors, who will ascertain and report as to the likelihood of his becoming an efficient master tailor. [See Appendix 1.]

V. If the report is favourable, general officers will be pleased to forward, at once, the Adjutant General the proceedings of the board, accompanied by a description return in which should be inserted whether the candidate is fit for service at home and abroad, and a copy of his company defaulters sheet. [See Appendix 2.]

VI. In the cases of regiments stationed singly in out quarters, it will only be necessary to take the opinion of the master tailor of the corps as to the capabilities of the candidate.

VII. Men whilst under training at the Royal Army Clothing Factory, Pimlico, receive 1s. per diem, in addition to regimental pay, and are attached for quarters to battalion of the Guards stationed in London.

VIII. Appended are forms of description return and proceedings of Board.

By command. W. PAULET, Adj. Gen.
